

GRADUATE SCHOOL
FOR SOCIAL RESEARCH

THE SECOND EDMUND MOKRZYCKI SYMPOSIUM
19-20 November 2004. Warsaw, Staszic Palace.

BUILDING DEMOCRACY AND CIVIL SOCIETY IN “NEW” EUROPE.
Fifteen years of transformation. Assessments and perspectives.

Friday, 19th November

13.00

WELCOME by ANDRZEJ RYCHARD, Chairman of The Centre for Social Studies

13.15-15.00

SESSION ONE:

DEMOCRATIC LEGITIMACY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

CHAIR:

Georg Thurn (Berlin)

KEYNOTE SPEECH:

Claus Offe (Berlin):

The Emerging Euro-Polity: If Democratisation is the Answer, what is the Question?

PRESENTATIONS:

Sverker Gustavsson (Upsala):

What Makes a European Monetary Union Without a Parallel Fiscal Union Sustainable?

Jurgen Nautz (Kassel):

”Like a Bridge over Troubled Water”? – Monetary Policy after 1867 in Austria-Hungary.
Nationalist NGOs, Governments, and the Policy of the Central Bank.

Henryk Domanski (Warsaw):

Between State Socialism and Markets. Meritocratic Distribution of Incomes in Poland and 26 Countries.

15.00-15.30

COFFEE BREAK

15.30-17.30

SESSION TWO:

DEMOCRACY AND COMMUNITY

CHAIR:

Marek Ziolkowski (Poznan/Warsaw)

PRESENTATIONS:

Chris Bryant (Salford):

Citizens and Nationals in an Enlarged European Union.

Jan Kubik (New Brunswick, N.J.):

Civil Society: Universal and Portable?

Joanna Kurczewska (Warsaw):

Civil Society with a Nation and Region Behind.

Stefan Auer (Dublin):

Whose Europe is it Anyway? Derrida, Habermas, Havel, Patočka and Rumsfeld Debate the Meaning of European Identity.

Saturday, 20th November

09.30-12.00

SESSION THREE:

DEMOCRACY, TECHNOCRACY AND LEGITIMACY

CHAIR:

Michal Federowicz (Warsaw)

PRESENTATIONS:

Stephen Turner (Tampa):

Expertise and the Process of Policy-Making: the EU's New Model of Legitimacy.

Stein Ringen (Oxford):

The Powerlessness of Powerful Government.

Nico Stehr (Friedrichshafen):

Is Civil Society a Daughter of Knowledge? Worlds of Knowledge and Democracy.

Jan-Erik Lane (Geneva):

Globalisation: Is it Governable?

12.00-13.00

LUNCHEON

13.00-15.00

SESSION FOUR:

POLITICAL CULTURE AND POLITICAL STRUCTURE. COMPARATIVE CASES

CHAIR:

Slawomir Kapralski (Warsaw)

PRESENTATIONS:

Bernard Wessels (Berlin):

Convergence of Democratic Consolidation? The former GDR and Eastern Europe in Comparison, 1990 – 2002.

Nikolai Genov (Berlin):

Managing Traps of Social Policy in Eastern Europe.

Jurgen Schmidt (Berlin):

Working Class Movement as a Carrier-Group of Civil Society: Participation, Emancipation and Learning Democracy in 19th Century Germany (ca. 1848-1880).

Leslie Holmes (Melbourne):

Political Scandals and Public Attitudes towards Party Financing: Poland and Germany Compared.

15.00-15.30

COFFEE BREAK

15.30-17.30

SESSION FIVE: PANEL

BUILDING BRIDGES: NEW COUNTRIES, NEW PROBLEMS?

CHAIR:

Józef Niznik (Warsaw)

PARTICIPANTS:

Jiri Musil (Prague)

Wlodzimierz Wesolowski (Warsaw)

Andrzej Rychard (Warsaw)

Tomas Dahlman (Stockholm)

Lena Kolarska-Bobinska (Warsaw)